Window & Door Announces 2016 Dealers of the Year

VIENNA, VA—Window & Door magazine and the Window & Door Dealers Alliance are pleased to announce the 2016 Dealer of the Year Awards honorees.

The prestigious awards recognize window and door specialty retailers in nine categories of overall and specialized excellence. “Each year, Window & Door has the honor of learning about the ways dealers across the country are elevating the industry,” says Emily Kay Thompson, editor, Window & Door magazine. “This year’s honorees demonstrate a commitment to excellence and innovation.”

The awards, sponsored by the WDDA, are designed to provide benchmarks for professionalism in the industry. Those selected represent window and door retailers and distributors that stand out as innovators in terms of business practices, sales strategies, customer service, installation methods and community service efforts.

“Through the Dealer of the Year Awards, we are reminded of the true innovative spirit, the entrepreneurship and ingenuity that exist in our market,” says Thompson. “What these companies are doing to provide homeowners with essential products is remarkable.”
